BEAUTY ALERT!

Many CanadaBeauty readers are self-proclaimed beauty junkies with a drawer full of beauty products! Everything from lipgloss to mascara is bought and tried. In general, women are notorious for not throwing things out and it can sometimes be hard to remember when makeup was purchased.

That's where Beauty Alert! comes in. Beauty Alert! is a kit that contains 24 specially-designed stickers, 6 stickers for 4 different categories of product life.

Beauty Alert! stickers eliminate the need to remember when you bought your makeup because the "home use life span" is printed right on the label. You only need to write in the date you broke the seal on the product and apply the sticker directly onto the cosmetics container.

Sounds like a great idea for those of you that want to keep a close eye on your beauty hygiene and safety. Learn more about Beauty Alert! by visiting beautyalert.biz.
